

NOR CAL RULES WHICH IMPACT PLAYOFFS:

FOR 2016: There are no pre-determined D1 and D2 teams or associations. The cutoff for D1 qualification is a regular season record of 6-2 or better... if there are only 3 or less teams with a 6-2 record or better on any given level, all 5-3 teams must move up to D1 unless there is one clear team that either wants to play D1 or wins a tie-breaker with the other 5-3 teams) – SH 15U.

QUALIFYING (page 2):

PLAYOFFS: It takes 3 wins to qualify for the playoffs. A team with two wins can request to participate if there is room in the playoffs

Tie-breakers for making playoffs or seeding purposes are (1) Head to head competition. (2) Better record against common opponents (if played an equal number of times or there is a clear distinction in common opponent record). (3) Best Overall Record. (4) Number of tie-breaker games (5) NCSC team over Alliance team with same record. (6) Coin toss. NOTE: only 1 and 2 applied this season.

The higher seeded team is home. If a team is hosting playoffs but is not the higher seeded team, they have the option of playing on the home side of the field. In that situation, the chains would also be on the home side of the field.

If there are 8 teams in the playoffs, the First Round is 1 vs 4 and 2 vs 3 in each semi-final bracket with the winners playing for the Bracket championship (Conference Semi-finals) the following weekend with bracket winners playing for the D1 championship.

The Nor Cal President may make changes in the play-in and first round (including D1 first round with 4 teams) to reduce travel but the top 4 teams (in an 8 team field or top 2 teams in a 4-6 team field) in any division cannot meet in the first round.

-HOME FIELD (pages 3 and 4) – HOST TEAMS PLAY AT HOME WHENEVER POSSIBLE - I make every attempt to have your teams play at home if you are hosting however if 2 teams are playing against one another and both associations are hosting, the higher seed or if tied the team that won their regular season game or tie-breaker will be at home and the other team will be on the road. So for example (This is an example only – it did not happen as listed) if both SR and VBE have identical records and are hosting and their JP and JM are scheduled to play in the playoffs, the JM game would be at SR if SR won the regular season game and the JP game would be at VBE if the VBE JP's beat SR during the regular season. If a host has a request (i.e. "I need my Cadets as the last game of the day because they help with clean up") Nor Cal will try to incorporate the requests into the playoff schedule but no guarantees can be made on fulfilling the request. See note on page 3 with regard to host teams being on the home side of the field.

TINY MITES: The TM Bowl is part of the Conference Tournament. Teams may choose to participate in one game only if they notify the Nor Cal President by Sunday night of week 6. The TM bowl uses normal MPR rules (4-6-8) rather than (6-8-10) and will be divided into two tournaments based on area.
